WENDY NURTURE

BOARD MEMBER

MEN'S MINISTRY (MOVE)

Ministries in the Nurture category are responsible for activites and events that have an inward focus.

INTRODUCTION

The men's ministry has often been chased by the big-screen TV and Super Bowl stereotype. It is your duty to lead the men of your church, as well as their families and the church-at-large to a new understanding. The men of your church need to come away from the men's ministry gatherings better equipped to serve the church, their families, and each other.

DUTIES

- Develop and conduct on a periodic basis a wide variety of programs and activities that will meet the various contemporary needs of a diverse male constituency.
- Encourage and facilitate meaningful spiritual, mental, and emotional growth among the men of the church.
- Work with a small administrative committee to make plans and policy.
- Communicate with the church secretary, head of communications, and pastor when scheduling programs.
- Serve as the conference men's ministries representative to the local church.
- When requested assist the conference director in planning meetings that are for the benefit of all the men of the conference.
- Serve as a communicator of news of interest to men that is disseminated from the division, union, and conference men's ministries programs.
- Mentor someone else in this ministry.
- Report to the family ministry committee and/or church board.
